Short-Term Investments That Are Safe

Satisfactory short-term investments in the shape of stocks and bonds are not readily found. Most of the choice securities have a number of years to run.

However, there is one security that we can recommend without any reservation whatever to those having funds for short-term investment—our interest-bearing Certificates of Deposit.

Any amount from $1.00 up can be invested with the assurance of absolute safety and for such time as is desired. They will be found just as satisfactory for long-term as for short-term investment.

You are invited to call on us for full details.

THE GREATEST FARMER IN THE WORLD

One-fourth of the wheat we grow is the result of the researches of the Government. After years of untiring experiment and investigation, the Government, through the Department of Agriculture, was enabled to introduce into this country the remarkable Durum wheat through which our production has been increased fully twenty-five per cent. This has been only one of many surprising but little-known accomplishments of the Government, which are covered in the interesting series of stories for which we have the exclusive right of distribution in this community.

Death of Mrs. C. E. Torrence

Mrs. C E. Torrence died at her home four miles east of Appomattox, Wednesday, August 16th, 1922 Mrs. Torrence before her marriage was a Miss Maggie Barton, of Floyd, Va., and was married to Mr. Charles E. Torrence June 9th, 1914 and came to Appomattox to make her home. They were happy in their new home until the early dawn of the 16th, when the angel of death and the angel of motherhood met. The battle was soon won and the angel of death claimed as its victim both mother and babe

Deceased is survived by her husband and five small children namely: Lurlene, Cecil, Charles J., Annie and John. She is also survived by her aged father, Mr. John Barton of Floyd, one brother W. D. Barton of Elliston, two sisters Mrs. Annie Young of Floyd and Mrs Katie Barber, of Roanoke. Mrs. Torrence was 35 years of age She came to us a stranger but made many friends during her brief stay. She was a member of the baptist church and a devoted christian. On the next day she was laid to rest in the family cemetery among a host of sorrowing friends. Rev. Ragland her pastor conducted the funeral services.

The pall bearers were the eight brothers of the bereaved husband. Many expressions of love were shown by the beautiful floral designs Flower bearers were nieces of Mr and Mrs Torrence. Many friends and relatives from a distance attended the funeral to show their last tribute of respect.

May the God of love comfort the family in this sad hour. A friend who knew and loved her

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown me during the illness and death of my dear wife. C. E TORRENCE.

Death of Mr. Sam J. Harris

After an illness covering several years, Mr. Harris passed away at his home at Five Forks, on Sept. 1st, 1922, at the age of 79 years.

In peace, as in war, deceased was true and faithful to all the duties devolved upon him. A kind neighbor, a steadfast friend, a devoted father, and law abiding citizen, he possessed those qualities which endeared him to all who knew him. A loving and devoted wife who gave him every care during his years of suffering; survives him, also three daughters: Mesdames R S. Crute, Dayton Dillon, J. E. Dinwiddie, and four sons: John M., H. M, and J. T. Harris all of this county, and M. F. Harris, of West Virginia.

Funeral services were conducted at Beth Peer church by Rev. Moore, where a large congregation assembled to pay their last respects to one whom they honored in life and mourned in death. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Frances Rose

This charming young lady, reared and known in Appomattox as Frances Abbitt, died at a Richmond hospital Monday She has been living at Henderson, N. C, where her husband, John D Rose, is in business. Her death was a shock to her friends here. She is survived by her husband, mother and three small children. Her remains will be interred at her late home in N. C to day.

Miss Effie Rutledge who has been visiting friends around Evergreen returned to Lynchburg Sunday.

Bent Creek

The farmers are quite busy now harvesting an abundant crop. The seasons have been fine and the crops are good. If the tobacco crop will only sell well we hope to see big results from the crop of 1922 Business has been good notwithstanding the rail road strike and now we hope to see things much better since the strike is settled.

Sometime back we were so enthused over the building of the Bent Creek bridge we could imagine we heard the autos crossing. Our town is improving so fast it gets more like New York every day. The ferry man is kept busy all day on Sunday just ferrying automobiles over.

Maple Grove, Gladstone church and several others are without a pastor. Rev. W. G. Hughes resigned to attend school at Louisville, K Y, we have one or two in view to take charge of the field. When a minister has four or five churches and pleases all he has to be truly a man of God.

D. Mosby Harris and George Dixon both have new cars.

Mr. E A. Walton who has been spending his vacation with his father in-law, G. W. Jamerson, returned to his home in Lynchburg Saturday.

Championship Tournament At State Fair

An Old Virginia tournament will be a big amusement feature of the Virginia State Fair on Saturday, October 7. All contestants are to ride in full costume and a special prize of $50 is offered for the most appropriately attired knight. A grand ball at which the successful knight will crown the queen of love and beauty as was the olden time custom, will follow the tilting in the immense ball room in the fair grounds. A parade of the knights and their gaily caparisoned steeds will precede the tournament. Prizes are to be—$300 cash, first prize; $200, second; $100, third; $50, fourth. One hundred dollars for the best looking and best mannered horse; $50 for the best costume. Lances to be 9 feet in length, balanced four feet from point with steel points allowed; time, 6 seconds flat; size of rings from 1¼ to ¾ inch. The general public has little idea of the present day popularity of the tournament nor the large number of expert tournament riders to be found in the State. The Fair Tournament will be in the nature of a championship event as all the best riders from this and nearby States will be entered. Full particulars may be had by writing to the State Fair Association at Richmond, Virginia.

Nervous Break-Down

MRS. ANNIE LANGE, of R.F.D. 1, Burlington, Tex., writes as follows regarding her experience with Cardui: "Some time ago I had a nervous breakdown of some kind. . . I was very weak and so nervous. I had fainting spells and suffered a great deal, but more from the weak, trembly, no-account feeling than anything else. I knew I needed a tonic, and needed it badly. I began the use of Cardui to see if I couldn't get some strength, as I knew of other cases that had been helped by its use. I soon saw a great improvement, so I kept it up. I used seven bottles of Cardui, and can say the money was well spent, for I grew well and strong. Am now able to do all my housework and a great deal of work besides."

If you are weak, run-down, nervous and suffer from the ailments peculiar to women, it is very likely that Cardui will help you, in the way it helped Mrs. Lange and has helped thousands of others, during the past 40 years.

Ask for, and insist on, Cardui.
